NSC BRIEFING

1 December 1954

SITUATION IN SOUTH VIETNAM

I. Ouster of General Hinh.

- A. His statement to Paris press
he would return to Saigon
"whatever Bao Dai's decision"
presumably touched off dismissal.
- B. But terms of dismissal indicate Bao Dai abandoning equivocal stand.

II. Army-government reconciliation will not be automatic.

- A. Hinh once said he would oppose Diem politically if fired.
- B. Boasted he could carry out coup from Paris.
- C. Had begun putting his men in key positions before leaving Saigon.

D. Tension within army still high.

E. Ely has feared Diem-Hinh dispute might be replaced by conflict between premier and General Vy, Hinh's replacement.

F. Vy lacks Diem's confidence.

III. Hinh is political lightweight, but backing of French elements offset this.

A. Hinh's French backers can switch to other anti-Diem champions.

B. French military has vested interest anti-Diem feeling in army, since Diem favors
US takeover of training.

D. French radio in Saigon warns
Viets against "heavy hand" of US.
